Meet New goMOMs Members

Jess D'Alessandro

Hello! My name is Jess D'Alessandro, and this is my husband Brandon, along with my identical twin girls, Austin & Memphis, who were born at 27 weeks, 2 days. Austin was 1lb 14oz and Memphis was 1lb, 13 oz. We currently reside in Roseville but will be moving to Emmett, MI. I found out about goMOMs from Sarah Genovese, who knows my sister-in-law. I am a stay-at-home mom, and I love being home with my girls, watching them grow and learn new things!

April Book Nook: A Mixed Bag

Me Too, Grandma! By Jane Chapman

Little Ollie Owl has a surprise from his Grandma-a new cousin, Lily Owl. Ollie learns that there is room in Grandma's heart for more than one grandchild. This is a sweet little story to share with those who are expecting a new little addition and have children struggling with feelings of jealousy.

Reading Level: Ages 2-5

We're All Wonders: Written & Illustrated by R.J. Palacio

Auggie knows he isn't like other kids. He doesn't look like other kids, but he celebrates how he is the same and also different. Everyone is a wonder-if only they can see it.

How Not to Hate Your Husband After Kids: by Jancee Dunn

This sometimes hilarious, sometimes eye-opening book about the spouse/parent balance many parents face on a daily basis is a good read, especially for moms of young children. The author and her husband tackle many issues with various approaches, with equal parts humor, frustration, and good will.
